Lawmakers Say Bond Issue an Achievement

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The General Assembly came to quiet end Thursday with Gov.
E. Faubus and lawmakers agreeing that a bill authorizing a $10 million construction bond was the most significant achievement of the 1961 regular session.
Legislative action on the bond measure and a companion $17 million omnibus construction bill was completed earlier in the week.
House passage — by a bare one-vote margin — on a bill to set flat prices for automobile licenses was the only surprising development on the final day.
The Senate finished action on three constitutional amendment proposals which will appear on the 1962 general election ballot.
Already approved were Faubus' proposal to guarantee that no child shall lose his right to a free education because he refuses to attend an integrated school and a home rule amendment to increase taxing powers of cities.
The Senate Thursday passed proposals to increase maximum salaries of state and county officials and to permit use of voting machines. However, since only the first three proposals approved go on the ballot, the voting machine measure will not make it unless one of the others is removed by court action.
The auto license bill caused a minor controversy in the House after Pike County Rep. Alvis Stokes announced moments before adjournment that someone else had voted on his machine in favor of the bill.
Stokes was permitted to enter his objection in the journal but

Witnesses Called Into Vote Probe

DE VALLS BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Several persons were subpoe-ned to testify before the Prairie County Grand Jury today investigating of voter lists found missing from Hazen Township ballot boxes in the Nov. 8 general election and the Dec. 6 school election.

Prairie Circuit Clerk Billy Garth notified the jury Thursday that a search of his office failed to turn up the missing documents.

The grand jury opened the ballot boxes Wednesday and did not find the voter lists required by law, and ordered Garth to search his office for them.

Among witnesses who appeared Thursday was former Circuit Clerk Albert Erwin, who held the office before Garth was elected.

State law says ballot boxes must contain voter lists.

An earlier grand jury investigated the Aug. 9 Democratic primary election in which former state Sen. Jerry J. Screeton of Hazen apparently defeated J. T.
Gunter of Austin in the 19th District senatorial race.

Screeton was beaten in the general election by Charles L. George of Cabot, a write-in candidate.
Several of the ballot boxes opened in an investigation of that election, including boxes from Hazen Township, did not contain voter lists.

Railway Has New General Manager

CHICAGO (AP) — A reshuffle of operating management today made George J. Mulick general manager of the Rock Island Lines' second operating division at El Reno, Okla.
He replaces Oscar W. Lemestall, shifted to Chicago as assistant to the president. Limestall replaces Ernest E. Faulks, who was named assistant vice president.
Mulick's former post as assistant general manager at El Reno will be filled by Robert W. Anderson, superintendent of the Arkansas Division, Little Rock. William F. Thompson, superintendent of the western division, Fairbury, Neb., was transferred to El Reno as superintendent of the Omaha division. Arthur E. Anderson moves from assistant superintendent at Liberal, Kan., to superintendent of the Arkansas Division, Little Rock.

Faubus to Set Special Election

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said he will set a date next week for a special election to choose a successor for the late 6th District Rep. W. F.
Norrell.

Norrell died Feb. 15 after suffering a stroke in his Washington office.

Mrs. Norrell and J. H. Jones, a Pine Bluff attorney, have announced as candidates to fill the unexpired term.

Accidents Leave Two Injured

Two accidents in downtown Hope this morning resulted in injury to three persons and heavy property damage.

Early this morning at Main and second an auto driven by Luther Smith, 46, Negro, hit a pedestrian, Mrs. Bennie Orr, 55, as she crossed the street.

Mrs. Orr was rushed to a local hospital by a Herndon-Cornelius ambulance where she is being treated for bruises and a hip injury.

Investigating Officers Willis and Ward are holding Bishop on an open charge.

About 9:20 a.m. at Third and Elm Streets a truck driven by Elmer Smith ran into the side of an auto driven by Mrs. Bob Westbrook. Mrs. J. R. Johnson, riding with Mrs. Westbrook, is being treated in a local hospital for a side injury. Mrs. Westbrook was treated for bruises and released.

Chief of Police Jack Brown and Officer Willis charged Smith with running a red light. The Westbrook car was heavily damaged.

Officers also report that an iron, some sheets and bath towels were taken from the home of Mrs. Mc-Clain at 817 West Avenue C.

Asprin Overdose Fatal to Child

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP) — A 2-year-old girl died Thursday of an overdose of aspirin, Coroner Otto Dillinger said.
Joan Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wilson of Tupelo, 16 miles southeast of here, died in a Newport hospital several hours after it was discovered she had eaten aspirin from a bottle given her by a 5-year-old brother, Dillinger said.
He said the boy, Tony, climbed to a medicine cabinet and got the aspirin bottle while the two children were alone in the house.

Graverobber Declared Mentally Ill

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A 22-year-old airman accused of robbing two graves is mentally ill and will require indefinite hospitalization, authorities said today.

A State Hospital report said Airman 2 C. Jerry Reynolds of Creighton, Mo., was ill "to the degree of legal irresponsibility" at the time of his examination and presumably had been ill at the time he allegedly opened the graves of two young women in cemeteries at nearby Jacksonville.

Circuit Judge William J. Kirby said it would have to be determined where Reynolds would be hospitalized. He was stationed at Little Rock Air Force Base near Jacksonville when he was arrested Jan. 10.

Reynolds was charged under an 1887 law with defacing and injuring graves.

What authorities called "a sordid chain of events" first came to light early in January, when the grave of a 28-year-old woman was found to have been disturbed.
Police said an attempt had been made to remove the body.

Then the body of a 17-year-old girl was found to have been stolen from its grave in another cemetery.

Reynolds, who told officers when he was arrested he had realized he was sick, admitted taking the younger girl's body Dec. 28 and trying to take that of the older woman a few days later.

Reynolds and his wife of about four years were living in a trailer near Jacksonville. His wife had gone to her home for the Christmas holidays at the time the crimes were committed, authorities said.

He had been stationed at the air base for about six months.

Fire Grets Store Opening

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — The Brokers Department Store held its grand opening ceremonies Thursday. A few hours later it was heavily damaged by fire.
The store had been operating a week. Fire Chief Ruff Coleman said cause of the fire was not known. No estimate of damage was available.
The fire was confined to the second story of the two-story building, but water and smoke damage on the first floor was heavy.

Commies Launch Attack in Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels launched a three-pronged attack today against government positions at battered Sala Phou Koun junction which controls Laos' vital north-south highway.

Government commander Gen.
Boun Leuth Sanichun reportedly moved his headquarters south in the face of a heavy attack by at least nine rebel battalions.

There was no indication what effect the attack would have on the government's long-promised drive northward. Government officers in the past have said control of Sala Phou Koun is a prerequisite for such an offensive.

Missing Navy Plane Found, Eight Die

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A Navy bomber which crashed
Thursday night in choppy Lake George was found by rescue teams today.

Feet of water in the Lake George Navy search operations, said there was no trace of the eight crewmembers reported aboard the craft.

The plane was found in 10 to 15
feet of water in the Lake George practice bombing range about 65 miles south of Jacksonville.

Boldt said a Navy diver would go down to the wrecked plane as soon as a search and rescue boat arrived from Jacksonville. Three to four foot swells had hampered search operations.

The P2V patrol bomber plunged into the lake five miles west of Seville, Fla., during a night anti-submarine drill.

Crew members of a second plane on the practice mission reported its mate plunged into the lake near a target ship, broke up and burned.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A Navy plane and its crew of eight were sought today in wind-roughened Lake George where they plunged in a night-time anti-
submarine drill.

The Navy said no trace of the plane or its personnel was found.
Three-to four-foot waves roiled the lake, which is about 65 miles lake target range by searchlight.

The second plane reported its mate plunged into the lake near the target, broke up and burned.

Fires Add to State Death Toll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three Negro children and a 33-year-old man burned to death in house fires Thursday night as temperatures in Arkansas dipped to near or below freezing.

Ellie Larry, 10, months, and her brother, Charles Larry, 22 months, died in a fire which destroyed their home in North Little Rock. Their parents, next door at the time, were unable to enter the burning home.

A 13-year-old boy, Leslie James Hicks III, died in a fire which destroyed his family's home in Monticello. The mother, Eula Davis Hicks, told officers she ran into the yard to get water after discovering the fire, but then was unable to get back in the house.

Courtney Hall, 33, a Negro, suffered from a fire which leveled his frame house in Fort Smith.
The Weather Bureau reported frosty weather over the state, with low temperatures ranging from the mid 20s in the north to the low 30s in the south.

Rep. Talbot Field Jr. of Hope has been elected to serve on the Arkansas Legislative Council for the next two years preceding the 1963 general assembly . . . and Rep. Field voted against the in-

Leftist Congo Leaders Gain Their Release

By DENNIS NEED

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo
(AP) — Eleven captured leaders of Kivu have been released from a Stanleyville jail where they had been held since leftists seized their province last year, the United Nations said today.

While this indicated a change in attitude by the rebel regime, the U.N. command was unable to confirm reports from the leftist capital that Moscow-backed Antoine Gizenga had been deposed there.

Those reports said either the rebel military commander, Gen.
Victor Lundula, or President Jean Foster Manzikala of Oriental Province had taken over. Both are considered firm supporters of the policies of the late ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba.

But both were reported to have vigorous measures to prevent reprisals against whites in Stanley-ville after Lumumba's slaying. Last month in Katanga Province, Manzikala also has strong tribal backing in Stanleyville, something Gizenga never had.

A U.N. spokesman reported the release of Jean Miroho, former president of Kivu, and 10 members of his provincial government.

Miroho had paid at least lip service to the central government at Leopoldville and had resisted pressure from Stanleyville in neighboring Oriental Province to join up with Gizenga. Gizenga sent in a raiding party last December, arrested Miroho and his officials, and took control of Bukavu, the provincial capital.

In Leopoldville, the U.N.'s Congo mission continued negotiating with Congolese leaders on the terms for the return of U.N.
troops to the key ports of Banana and Matadi.

The U.N. spokesman told newsmen he could not comment on Congolese reports that agreement has been reached by which the United Nations and the Congolese would exercise joint control of air traffic here. This was one major Congolese condition for permitting
U.N. forces to return to the ports.

Maj. Gen. Sean McKeown, Irish commander of U. N. forces, was reported to have agreed to a form of joint control over U. N. air traffic in the Congo.

The Congolese informants gave no details of the reported agreement. Nor did they say whether the Congolese were modifying other conditions they said must be met before they would allow U.N.
troops to return to the port of Matadi, from which a Sudanese garrison was driven Sunday after two days of fighting.

Other major Congolese demands for opening up Matadi, where 33 U. N. ships are expected within the next week or so, were: (1) Joint control over other strategic points held by U. N. forces (2) that all permanent movements by U. N. troops be subject to Congolese approval.

McKeown and Rajeshwar Dayal,
Indian chief of the U. N. mission, were negotiating here with acting Premier Albert Delvaux and Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko, who are heading the Leopoldville government while President Joseph Kasavubu and Premier Joseph Ileo are attending the Congo political conference at Tananariwe, Malagasy.

U. N. Secretary-General Dag Hammaraskjold meanwhile sent a sharp message to Kasavubu in effect rejecting any Congolese control of the U. N. force's activity.
He reminded Kasavubu that his government had pledged to give the U. N. force freedom of movement.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has strongly urged Soviet Premier Khrushchev to cooperate with the United States in making war-torn Laos a completely neutral nation, lest the conflict there explode into a much greater East-West clash.

Specifically, Kennedy wants Khrushchev to choke off the presently heavy flow of Soviet arms to the pro-Communist rebels in northern and eastern Laos before the United States decides it is compelled to launch a counter-buildup of forces under the pro-Western government of Premier Boun Oum.

The President was reported today to have advised Khrushchev that the United States is fully prepared to submit its own military assistance to Laos to screening by a commission composed of representatives of neutral nations, assuming that Khrushchev would agree to the same kind of supervision over Soviet arms aid.

Kennedy's position was made known to Khrushchev by U.S.
Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson who spent four hours with the Soviet premier in the city of Novo-sibirsk Thursday, it was reported here.

Thompson immediately returned to his headquarters in Moscow and set about drawing up a full report for Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk. He said it would be rushed to Washington. Administration officials declared it would receive prompt attention from the President.

Diplomatic authorities here said that the Laos crisis was foremost among many subjects which the U.S. diplomat and the Soviet premier discussed. Thompson had carried a written message from Kennedy to Khrushchev expressing hope for an improvement in U.S.-Soviet relations and declaring Kennedy's complete confidence in Thompson.

In addition Thompson had detailed instructions on a wide variety of subjects, including the
current crises which carry the greatest danger of direct military
clashes between American and Soviet forces or forces backed by
them.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk
told a news conference Thursday
that "The situation in Laos is at
the moment in a state of negotiation rather than stalemate." He thus kept open official hope that
diplomatic efforts would avoid the military showdown which U.S. officials fear might draw in larger
and larger forces on both sides
and engulf all of Southeast Asia.

President Kennedy said at
his news conference Wednesday,
"The United States has been
hopeful that it would be possible
to set up some procedures where
neutral nations could guarantee
the security of Laos, and also isolate it from military pressures on
both sides."

Kennedy is said to have offered
assurance to Khrushchev through Thompson that the United States
has no designs whatever on Laos
and is fully prepared to treat it
as a strictly neutral country under conditions which would make sure that it did not favor either side in the cold war.

Wet-Dry Vote Investigated

SEARCY, Ark. (AP) — A White County grand jury is investigating charges of alleged irregularities in a disputed 1958 wet-dry election, Prosecutor Lloyd Henry said today.

Henry said more than 150 witnesses have been heard since the inquiry started Monday. He said more witnesses were to be examined today and he had no idea when the jury might report.

The investigation was requested by the Good Government League, headed by Dr. George S. Benson, president of Harding College.
Henry said. He said information from the league was not turned over to him until last October.

Wet forces were victorious according to certified returns, but a court contest tied up the election for nearly two years. The case twice reached the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Results of that election were superseded by a vote in the 1959 general election in which White County went dry by a large majority.

JFK Asks Reds Not to Make War in Laos

iety of subjects, including the
current crises which carry the greatest danger of direct military
clashes between American and Soviet forces or forces backed by
them.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk
told a news conference Thursday
that "The situation in Laos is at
the moment in a state of negotiation rather than stalemate." He
thus kept open official hope that
diplomatic efforts would avoid the
military showdown which U.S. officials fear might draw in larger
and larger forces on both sides
and engulf all of Southeast Asia.

President Kennedy said at
his news conference Wednesday,
"The United States has been
hopeful that it would be possible
to set up some procedures where
neutral nations could guarantee
the security of Laos, and also iso-
late it from military pressures on
both sides."

Kennedy is said to have offered
assurance to Khrushchev through Thompson that the United States
has no designs whatever on Laos
and is fully prepared to treat it
as a strictly neutral country under conditions which would make
sure that it did not favor either
side in the cold war.

The story: Chris Waddell is the new night marshal of Midas Hill, a lawless mining town. He has taken a room at the home of Mrs. Kate Crowder, who has a small son Lorrie.

Chapter V

It was mid-afternoon when Chris Waddell crossed the street to Frank Scobie's office. Entering, he was immediately aware of a changed atmosphere. The place had been thoroughly cleaned. "Had yourself a sleep, eh? And made up your mind, maybe?" Waddell nodded. "You've hired yourself a night man, Frank. Who needs an advance in wages. Because all I own to my name is what you see on me. Except this—and this."

He pushed back his jumper and laid his own gun on the desk. After which he produced a second weapon and shoved it over to Scobie.

"That one belonged to a fellow who tried to pull a holdup," Scobie picked up the gun, looked it over. "A holdup, you say? When and where?"

"Last night at Grizzly Spring. On the ride in with Barney Guilfoyle."

"You downed the owner of this?"

"No. But winged him, maybe. Anyhow, he left the gun behind." Scobie examined the gun again, shook his head. "Just another six-shooter to me."

"That's what Barney Guilfoyle said about it," Waddell admitted. "Well, put it away somewhere. Now would you happen to have a spare belt and holster around?"

Frank Scobie got to his feet, unlocked the corner closet and dragged out a tangle of several belts and holsters.

"These are left-overs from when Mike Vespasian held this office," Mike Vespasian!

"That's right. And a tough old rooster he was. Ran the camp plenty strict and rough. He really took the harness off the boys. Which is why they took the badge off him."

"For doing his duty, eh?"

"For doing it too well. A point you and me got to keep remembering."

He counted out five golden double eagles. Waddell pocketed the coins, then searched through the tan oglestadnhilbof-srdnsie tangle of belts and holsters. Finding what he wanted he strapped it on and tried his gun in it. Then he took the outfit off and hung it and gun on a wall peg.

"Time enough to star wearing ha when I go on duty," he said. He moved to his office door, paused here and turned. "This former marshal—Mike Vespasian, where is he now?"

"He and another fellow, Cass Leonard, are running cattle in the Alpine Meadows, about 20 miles north. He gets to town every once in a while to spend a little time with his daughter."

"Norma, by name?"

"How did you know?"

"She rode in on the freight outfit with Barney Guilfoyle and me."

Scobie blinked. "Why would she do that instead of taking the stage?"

"Seems she was bringing in a considerable amount of specie for this Jack Millerson. And figured it was safer to come in with Barney than by stage."

HOLDUP!

"That's about it," Waddell mused for a moment. "She struck me as a mighty nice girl."

"No question. But she hates this office and everybody connected with it since they took it away from her father. Should she see you with a badge on, she'll look at you like you had just crawled out of a jungle."

"Hazard of the trade, I guess."

He tramped along to Millerson's and turned in there. The store had looked large from the outside, but from the inside, even though stacked on shelf and floor with all manner of merchandise and supplies, it seemed even larger. Two clerks, an old man and a young one, and Millerson himself, were bustling about, taking care of customers. Helping them, was Norma Vespasian.

As soon as Millerson was free Waddell named his several wants and Millerson, stepping behind a counter, began laying them out. His manner was impersonal, distant.

"Maybe," drawled Waddell, "I should have let that fellow have your specie."

Millerson froze even more. "Told you I was obliged. I'll say it again. Obligated. You find your friend, Frank Scobie?"

"I found him. And hired on as his night man. Any comment?"

Millerson lifted an item from a shelf. When he came around again his face was strictly bland, showing nothing. "Your business?"

Waddell paid him and pocketed his change. Millerson moved off to wait on another customer. Waddell turned to leave and found Norma Vespasian watching him from a short distance away.

Waddell tipped his head slightly. "I'm the same man who rode that wagon with you last night. I haven't robbed anybody."

She flushed and turned away without answering.

The conference in Tananarive was reported shaping up what in effect would be a federation of autonomous Congolese states, replacing the centralized control from Leopoldville which in fact has not functioned since shortly after the Congo gained independence from Belgium last summer.

Details were left to be worked out at a later conference, but Leo told newsmen the leaders had agreed to the principle of creating new states in the Congo to take their places alongside existing states. Other leaders indicated the conference had agreed to accept the political divisions prevailing for the time being.

The delegates pushed ahead with their blueprint in defiance of leftist Antoine Gizenga's regime in Oriental and Kivu provinces. Gizenga, whose Stanleyville regime is supported by the Communist bloc and some African neutrals, is the only government chief missing from the meeting. After indicating he would attend, he changed his mind and snubbed the conference.

His enemies at the conference — Kasavubu, President Moise Tshombe of Katanga and Albert Kalonji of South Kasai—are trying to trim him down to the state of a minority leader and a rebel against the majority of the country's leadership.

Kasavubu, Tshombe and Kalonji also united in a blast at one of their chief foreign opponents, President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana. The conference sent Nkrumah a cable telling him to stop mixing in the Congo affairs and charging him with arrogantly assuming to talk for the Congo to further his own personal ambitions in Africa.

Two Children Die in Fire

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two Negro children burned to death Thursday night in a fire which destroyed their home here.

The bodies of 10-month-old Ellie Larry and her brother, Charles Larry, 22 months, were found in the debris. Their parents said they were visiting next door when they saw the house in flames, but were unable to enter it to save the children.

Kennedy's Peace Corps program, says recruiting, selection and training will start March 15.

Dennis, a Pennsylvania State University vice president, said Thursday night he hopes to begin picking personnel for a pilot phase of the plan when he takes over the executive post in Washington on that date.

Dennis said a number of institutions are being selected to train the first group and the first contingent may be overseas by early fall.

Mrs. Ruben Ray Reed

Sunday afternoon, February 26, at the First Methodist Church Miss Jo Jo Owens, daughter of Mrs. Pearl Owens and the late Wier Owens, and Ruben Ray Reed, son of Mrs. Frances Reed of Nashville and the late William A. Reed, pledged their marriage vows.
The Rev Rufus Sorrells officiated at the doubling ceremony in a setting of greenery, baskets of white lilies, and four seven-branched candelabra. Mrs. B. C. Hyatt was organist and accompanied Miss Margaret Nelle Medders when she sang "Because" and "Through the Years" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" at its conclusion. The couple knelt on a prie dieu while the latter was sung. Candles were lighted by Larry Baber and William Hinkle, both of Hope.
The bride was given in marriage by a cousin, Maurice Terrell of Murfreesboro. She wore a full-length gown of ivory peau de soie, with a bateau neckline outlined with applied lace medallions.
The long laist-line was also out-lined with the medallions and they were scattered over the front panel of the full skirt. The skirt swept into a chapel train, and with the short cap sleeved dress the bride wore long white gloves. Her veil fell from a tiara of pearls. She carried an orchid with lily of the valley on a white ribbon. The bride carried out the traditional custom of wearing something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue and a penny in her shoe.
Mrs. Maurice Terrell of Murfreesboro was matron of honor and Miss Mary Elizabeth Wackmack was the bridesmaid. Wackmack wore an aqua gown with elbow-length sleeves, a self-belt highlighted by a flat bow, and a pleated skirt. A crescent bouquet of pink carnations was carried by each. Little Miss Carolyn Sue Owens of Horatio, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Her dress and flowers were similar to those of the other attendants.
Master Terry Lynn Owens of Horatio, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer. Thomas N. Reed of Cincinnati, Ill. served his brother as best man. James Franklin Howell of Hope, was groomsmen and also served as usher. George Frazier, of Hope and Charles Paul O'Bryan of Nashville served as ushers.
For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Owens wore a royal blue lace sheath with matching hat and gloves and other accessories of black. Mrs. Reed, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue dress with a jacket of the same material and matching accessories. Each had a white carnation corsage.
Following the wedding a reception was held in the recreation room of the church. There, Mrs. Curtis Moran introduced the guests to the receiving line. The bride's table was covered with white net and centered with white candles and the attendants' bouquets. Serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Garland Medders and Mrs. Dewey Baber. Mrs. Charles Teynerson and Miss Fauncelle Atkins presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. David Casteel of Horatio had charge of the guest book.
When the couple left for a tour of 4 southern states, the bride wore a navy suit with black and white accessories and pinned the orchid from her bouquet at her shoulder. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Reed will be at home in Hope at 320 South Pine Street.

Mrs. Bennett will be remembered as the former Ruby Gilbert of Fulton, Ill. 1.

Lawmakers Say

Speaker John P. Bethell ruled he could not change the vote. Stokes said he was out of the chamber when the roll was called.
However, Bethell ruled the vote would count.
The bill sets a flat fee of $15 for cars under 4,100 pounds and $22 for autos over that weight. At present figured under a complicated formula of weight, horsepower and passenger capacity and price range from $7 for tiny cars to $25 for large ones.
Some House members objected that the bill needed 75 votes to pass, because it raises a tax, but Bethell said he had a letter from the attorney general's office stating that it would be enough.
At that, Bethell had to hold up the roll call for more than a minute while proponents shouted for "aye" votes. The machine showed only 47, but voice votes from Reps. Jack S. Oakes of Woodruff County, Pat Teague of Carroll County and B.S. Hinkle of Scott County brought the total to 50. Bethell then cast the deciding vote.
The bill was brought up as an administration measure and Faubus indicated he would sign it into law. He said the question of whether it needed 51 or 75 votes would have to be settled by the courts.
Pulaski Rep. Glenn Walther, an attorney, said the bill would raise the tax on many cars and thus needed 75.

The House also completed legislative action on bills to increase the funeral benefit of the workmen's compensation law from $250 to $500, to outlaw automobile graveyards within 1,000 feet of a paved highway and to exempt firemen from civil liability in line of duty accidents.
A bill to give municipal bus companies a refund of 4 1/2 cents a gallon on the 6 1/2 cent gasoline tax was on the floor when Bethell adjourned the House sine die.
Reps. W.L. Ward of Lee County, Talbot Field of Hempstead County and Marion Crank of Little River County joined in a delaying tactic to keep the bill from coming to a vote.

After adjournment, Faubus appeared briefly before each House to thank legislators for passing his program. Later, he told newsmen, "I don't think any chief executive could expect much more success than we have had in getting our proposals adopted at this session."
The Legislature denied the governor nothing he pushed for, his hardest effort was pushing through his teacher retirement bill over opposition of school forces. Two votes were required in each house to pass the governor's bill. A bill backed by the Arkansas Education Association also passed but Faubus has said he will veto it. The AEA wanted the state to contribute about $6 million a year to the retirement program. Faubus' bill holds the contribution under $4 million.

The massive bond proposed passed with only token opposition. The omnibus bill got through with only a little more trouble after Faubus amended it to include $2 million for teacher salaries.
Polled after adjournment on what they thought to be the most significant legislation of the session, most lawmakers pointed to the bond bill, although some said reservations about whether voters will approve the bond issue at a special election.
Sen. J. Lee Bearden and Reps. Raymond Mays and Pula Van Dalsen were among those who thought the failure to pass any major new taxes was significant.
Van Dalsen added that defeat of a bill to raise truck load limits was a major accomplishment. He was a leader of opposition to the measure.
Oakes said the bond bill "gives the people a chance to take a forward step." He added, "I think

DOROTHY DIX
Inter-Marriage
Twice Removed

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE
Every now and then some boy or girl writes despairingly that he has fallen in love with his cousin. One came recently from "Tony," who was trying to muster up courage to propose to his second cousin.
Personally, I would shrink from marriage with a second cousin, and said so to Tony, adding however that second cousins do marry. I advised him to sound his cousin out first rather than permanently damage an otherwise happy relationship.
"Irene" of Kitchener, Canada, protests:
Dear Helen:
You advise Tony to shrink from a second cousin marriage. If it were a first cousin you might have a better excuse. Yet even that's safe except where there are diseases like TB or heart disease that can be inherited; then it is likely to be doubled with first cousins.
My uncle and aunt are first cousins. They had seven fine, healthy children, all grown and married with fine healthy children.
I have a second cousin married to her second cousin who also have healthy children, now married. My mother's cousin married her second cousin. I would say to Tony, if the cousin loves him, don't hesitate. But I always said I knew my cousins too well to marry them. —Irene Dear Irene: I didn't advise Tony to shrink from marriage with a second cousin — I said, "Personally, I would shrink." I was thinking not of eugenics, but of my own reactions. Personal feelings aside, I suppose inbreeding is all right up to a point but your family must be very sturdy.
Dear Helen:
I am at my wits' end. My husband will not stay with me and it breaks my heart. Two nights a week he goes to school, for that I am glad. The other three nights he comes home from work at five, eats his supper, shaves, and off he goes. I am in tears every time he leaves. If it were just one night a week beside his school, I would understand, but if I ever mention staying home that means war. Please help.—Desperate Dear Desperate: The picture is incomplete. Have you been married long? Where do you live? What is your husband's profession?

Crying won't keep him home. He must choose to stay — by preference. Are you a good housekeeper, attractive, and interesting as a human being? If not, take a charm school course. He should be the one to worry about you. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Marital Harmony."
Dear Helen:
My husband treats me like a queen but puts me on the spot by making me choose between my friends and him. A woman can't go through life just living for home and family. My husband loves to go out with me alone but hates to go with other couples. I feel like a bird in a gilded cage. —Desperate Wife Dear Desperate Wife: Your husband must be pretty unsure of himself. He is behaving like a 12-year-old. Tell him so—without rancor. It's for his good as well as yours. Unless he lets his bird out of her gilded cage, the time will come when she'll break the bars and fly away. Women are people, not pets.

Funds Asked for Housing Program

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Kennedy today sent to Congress a $3.25 billion save-the-cities housing program, to be run by a proposed new Cabinet-rank department of housing and urban affairs.

In special 10-point message

Kennedy called for prompt housing legislation to spur the economy and reinforce the cities in their "desperate struggle against blight and decay."

Housing Administrator Robert

C. Weaver, who presumably will become the first Negro Cabinet member if his housing agencies are wrapped together as an 11th department, said drafts of the whole package of legislation will be laid before Congress this month.

While stressing the need to spur

homebuilding as a stimulant to jobs and income, Kennedy's 10,000-word message was aimed chiefly at helping the middle-income and lower-income city dweller rather than the two-car suburbanite.

The highlights included:

A four-year, $2.5 billion authorization for urban renewal grants and loans.

A test program of 40-year mortgages—with no down-payment—for low cost dwellings, under the Federal Housing Administration loan insurance program.

A go-ahead for construction of 100,000 public housing units, in perhaps three years. Half would be earmarked and specially built for the elderly.

A major expansion of FHA's program of home improvement loans, to make this device possibly the major vehicle of aid to drive to upgrade decaying neighborhoods and modernize the nation's housing inventory.

The five-year limit and $3,500 ceiling on FHA repair and modernization loans would be greatly increased, Weaver indicated, and some new types of home-improvement credit never before made available may be devised.

Kennedy said the problem of cities and their suburbs should be "constantly brought to the Cabinet table" and deserve leadership at the top level of government.

He told Congress: "I therefore recommend—and shall shortly of-

can have an adequate education

Want a Change

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) - Civic boosters want to change the appearance of this famed resort city by painting the sedate green benches in pastel colors. Hundreds of benches, painted dark green by law, line St. Petersburg sidewalks. They have been "havens of rest for the old people who have come here seeking the sun."

At a meeting Wednesday night,

Mayor Ed Brantley, 68, said, "St. Petersburg has been built by old people, but it has become a city and has outgrown that now. We can't attract business and industry by building shuffleboard courts and green benches."

fer a suggested proposal for—the establishment in the executive branch of a new, Cabinet-rank department of housing and urban affairs."

This left wide open the question

whether he would ask Congress to act by its normal procedures, or would short-cut the process by issuing a presidential reorganization plan, subject to congressional veto, under reorganization powers which Congress is now weighing.

Bobcats Ousted From State Tournament

Hope Loses to Harrison 70-43 in State Tourney Quarter-Final

By VINCE FOSTER
Hope Star Sports Writer

The Hope Bobcats proved no match for the tough Harrison Gobblins in the state tournament at Little Rock last night as cat starters fouled out and were eliminated by the score of 70-43. Harrison will meet Catholic High in the semi-finals tonight. Catholic High advanced by edging out highly favored Fayetteville 50-48 in a sudden death overtime.

Again the Cats started off slow and just before the quarter ended Eddie Fry tied the game up 16-16 with a pair of free throws. After a couple of minutes in the second quarter, Glen Calhoun took two points on a drive to put Hope out front for the only time in the game with the score 20-19. Then Harrison took a six-point rally, but a little later Calhoun tied it up 25-25 with a jump shot. The half ended Hope 27, Harrison 29.

After three minutes were gone in the second half, Fry fouled out with the score Harrison 35, Hope 27. As Fry left the game, it seemed all the Bobcat spirit followed him, because the Bobcats didn't score in the second half until 5:30 minutes had past. The score, going into the final period, stood Harrison 49 Hope 35. Gene Robinson fouled out after 1:10 minutes in the final quarter. Churchwell followed after 5 minutes, and Arnett left after 6:30 minutes. Calhoun was the only Hope starter to remain in the game, although it seemed it was rather the Gobblins who were playing football on the court. Especially rough was Gob-

HOPE'S BOBCATS WERE ELIMINATED FROM THE State AA-AAA basketball tournament in the quarter-finals round at Barton Coliseum in Little Rock Thursday night, losing to the Harrison Gobblins 70 to 43.

HOPE PLAYED THE NORTH ARKANSAS BOYS A CLOSE Game through the first half, but fouling out of Bobcat principals caused a disastrous third quarter from which the locals never recovered.

THE BOBCATS HAD BEATEN CLASS AAA PINE BLUFF in the opening round Wednesday 70 to 45.

TODAY'S HOPE-HARRISON GAME PHOTOGRAPH WAS made by Rod Rogers of The Star, using the new Polaroid 3000 sheet film in a 4x5 Speed Graphic camera without flash. Excellent lighting in the Barton Coliseum permitted an exposure of 1/200th at F 4.7.

Kentucky Has NCAA Invitation

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Who's the biggest stumbling block in mighty Ohio State's bid to repeat as National Collegiate basketball champion? Down Blue Grass way, and maybe elsewhere too, they're likely to tell you it's Adolph Rupp, now that his revitalized Kentucky Wildcats have parlayed a 10-game winning streak into a record 12th appearance in the NCAA tournament.

The Wildcats, all but written off after they lost three of their first four conference games and won only eight of their first 15 over-all, showed Thursday night they've come all the way back by crushing Vanderbilt 88-67 in a neutral court playoff to determine the Southeastern Conference representative in the tournament.

Now it's on to the NCAA Mid-East regional at Louisville for the Wildcats. If Kennedy gets past its first NCAA game, March 17, and Ohio State also wins its first game, they'll be matched in the Mid-East regional final the next night.

For the record, Ohio State—everybody's No. 1 and now riding a 28-game winning streak—has lost only three games in the two years Jerry Lucas and buddies John Havlicek, Larry Siegfried and Mel Towell have been together. One of the three losses was to—you guessed it—the Kentucky Wildcats, 96-93, back in December 1959.

The Wildcats have one tune-up before the tournament opens—playing their regular season finals against another NCAA-bound team, Marquette, at Chicago Stadium Saturday night.

Marquette rallied behind Don Kojis to whip Xavier of Ohio, 77-74. NCAA-bound St. John's (N.Y.) pushed its winning streak to nine, 76-64 over New York U., and Tennessee State, the No. 2 small college power which had been clamoring for a bid to the National Invitation Tournament, was upset 92-82 by Winston-Salem Teachers in other features of Thursday night's programs. The loss knocked Tennessee State out of a return trip to the NIAA small college tournament at Kansas City, which State had won two of the last three years.

Oklahoma State defeated Oklahoma 60-47 to clinch at least a third place tie in the Big Eight Conference, and Manhattan edged its way on with a 75-69 triumph over Fordham in other regional games Thursday night.

Heavyweight Bout Talk of the Town

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's final boxing workout was the talk of the town today. Whether this was a good sign or not for Patterson remains to be seen.

While opponent Ingemar Johansson visited friends in the Palm Beach area, the 26-year-old champion bombed his sparring partners Thursday with a full assortment of punches. They were thrown from all angles with precision, speed and power. Many of them were unloaded in clusters of two, three and four.

When it was all over sparmates Wilson Hannibal and John Henry said the champ never looked better.

"He'll knock Ingemar's head off," said Henry, a 210-pounder from New York. "I don't think it will go five rounds." But Patterson, after the workout said, "I didn't go all out. I have had much better workouts." Patterson defends his title

Top Horses in Oaklawn Feature

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Ten thoroughbreds, only one of which has scored at the present meeting, will compete today in the $3,200 Hot Springs Business and Professional Woman's Club purse, feature of a nine-race card at Oaklawn Park.

The event will go a mile and 70 yards and is for horses with a claiming value of $7,500 to $8,000.

W.H. Bishop's Inset is regarded by the handicappers as the favorite. However, he will have to contend with a one-two punch in the form of J.W. Buchanan's entry of Football and Helequest. Others seen as strong threats are Mrs. Emil Denemark's Burgundian, Harry Hough's Sports Reporter, and Fort Stable's Akbox. Sports Reporter is the only previous winner at this meeting.

Topweight of 117 pounds will be carried by Loramer Stable's Russell Player. The balance of the field consists of L.J. Knight's Bob Adams, Lillian Bayliff and I.J. Wise's Pen Hallow and Everett Lowrance's Steel Pick.

Inset, a 4-year-old son of Buy and Sell and Rural Rhythm, will be making his third start of the meeting. In his last outing he finished second to Oilton in a six-furlong affair and the longer distance of today's feature might be to his liking.

After winning earlier in the season over lesser foes, Sports Reporter suffered ill luck at the start of a feature last Thursday when he stumbled and lost his rider.

Ketch's Joy, owned by G. M. Holsinger and Doug Davis Jr., hit her stride going into the stretch and won the featured $4,500 purse for fillies and mares at Oaklawn Monday.

Marty Je was second and J.D. Aske's Touch of Venue finished third. A crowd of 8,371 bet $483,084 on the eight races. Ketch's Joy was timed in 1:11.1 over the six furlongs.

against Johansson in their third fight at Miami Beach's Convention Hall Monday night.

At his press conference following the workout, Patterson made a pitch to help the ticket sale. He said another thousand tickets will be available at 720 each.

A source in a position to know said that the fight will do well to gross $500,000 on a sale of 12,000 tickets for the 17,000-seat hall.

The closed circuit telecast to theaters and arenas, however, represents the big payoff for the fighters. The fight will be shown in 207 locations in the U. S. and Canada.

Ft. Smith Given Edge for Title

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Fort Smith emerged today as the favorite in the Class AA-AAA basketball tournament after wallowing Little Rock Central 48-28 in the quarterfinal round Thursday.

The Grizzlies, who finished second in the Big Nine Conference race, take on Helena tonight at 7:30 p. m. In the first semifinal game, Harrison and Little Rock Catholic meet in the second semifinal at 8:30.

Helena battered Jonesboro 62-48 in the quarterfinals. Harrison got a third-quarter burst from Hartwell Roberts and beat Hope in the quarterfinals, 70-43. Little Rock Catholic beat Fayetteville 50-48 in a sudden-death overtime period when Roger Armbrust hit a 12-foot jump shot.

Fort Smith's deliberate, defensive and frugal-shooting Grizzlies have the ability to make the other team play their kind of basketball. And so far, the only team that has been able to do that successfully is Big Nine champ Blytheville, which lost out in the tournament's first round.

Hartwell Roberts, a 6-5, 220-pounder, scored five straight points to send Harrison off to a comfortable third quarter lead in its quarterfinal triumph over Hope.

Harrison led by only 29-27 at halftime, but outscored the Bobcats 20-3 in the third period and four of Hope's starters fouled out in the final frame.

Roberts and Paul Hill each scored 15 points for the Gobblins and Jim Atchley added 13. Glenn Calhoun hit 14 for Hope and Eddie Fry netted 11.

The Catholic High-Fayetteville game was the most exciting of the tournament. Little Mike Moran of Catholic hit two free throws with two seconds left in regulation playing time to tie the score 46-46 at the end of the game. It was 48-48 at the end of the first overtime, then Armbrust hit the winning shot a few seconds deep in the sudden-death overtime.

Justin Daniels scored 26 points for Fayetteville. Steve Schubert hit 17 for Catholic High and Armbrust netted 12.

Fort Smith is the only one of the four Big Nine representatives in the semifinals. The Grizzlies pursued their usual defensive tactics in knocking Little Rock Central out of the meet. They led 18-7 at halftime and 32-11 at the

Church School Aid Termed Unlawful

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy says the Constitution bars federal loans to private secondary schools on any cross-the-board basis. And he hopes advocates of such aid will desist lest the administration's education bill be killed.

Taking fresh issue with critics, the President sounded that appeal and expressed his views on the legal issues at a news conference Wednesday—even as word came from Congress about plans to press for loans to these schools.

Kennedy previously had asserted that he also believes outright grants to non-public secondary schools would be unconstitutional. At the session with 350 newsmen, Kennedy dealt at great length with the administration's controversial $3.2 billion bill to provide federal grants to public schools, scholarships to college students and loans to colleges. It calls for neither grants nor loans to parochial and private schools.

But conference questions and answers also ranged into the international field and touched on other domestic matters.

For example, Kennedy said he

end of the third quarter.

David Die led Fort Smith with 20 points. Claude Fulton and Bill Knight scored seven points each for Central. The Grizzlies hit 15 of their 25 field goal attempts for 60 per cent.

Helena sprinted away from Jonesboro and grabbed a 19-4 lead, but the Hurricane caught up in the third quarter, coming within four points before Helena boosted it to 40-35 and went into a stall that drew several Jonesboro fouls.

Ken Hatfield scored 26 points for Helena and J.B. King added 12. Ken Johnson hit 15 for Jonesboro and Barry Pruitt scored 14.

Helena led at halftime, 31-23, and connected on 26 of its 32 free throws.

would like to see an easing of what he called Communist China's belligerent attitude and harsh attacks on the United States.

"But," he added, "we are not prepared to surrender in order to get a relaxation of that."

And Kennedy announced that next Monday he will make a major policy statement dealing with the problems of Latin-American nations.

He also said he soon will be sending a special message to Congress indicating "what I believe to be the relative defensive position of the United States and other countries, and what needs to be done to improve it."

The President made that statement when asked whether he had yet concluded, on the basis of Pentagon studies, whether the Soviet Union has a missile advantage over the United States.

Kennedy said cryptically that he had looked over an FBI report on Charles Meriwether before the Senate voted 67-18 Wednesday to confirm him as an Export-Import Bank director.

"I am confident that he will do a good job," the President said.

A reporter had noted that Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., had raised a question as to whether Meriwether had a police record. Meriwether has not commented on Morse's statements.

Preseason Labor Inspection

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The U.S. Labor Department will require pre-season inspection of housing for Mexican laborers this year, state Employment Security Administrator J. L. Bland announced today.

Bland said that under new federal regulations, housing must be approved before Mexican nationals can be brought into the state. Hundreds of such workers are imported each year to work in cotton fields.
